1 Summary of course policies

Be professional.

I do not grade attendance directly. Nor do I grade assignment completion, give points for “effort,” accept late work, or give extra credit. In rare cases, exceptions can be made for students who are diligent in their work, petition for an exception in writing as soon as they realize that an exception may be needed, and make a legitimate case that an exception is warranted.

All CU policies, including the Honor Code, cover this course.
