The King Shall Come when Morning Dawns

Key of G

anon.; trans. John Brownlie (1907)
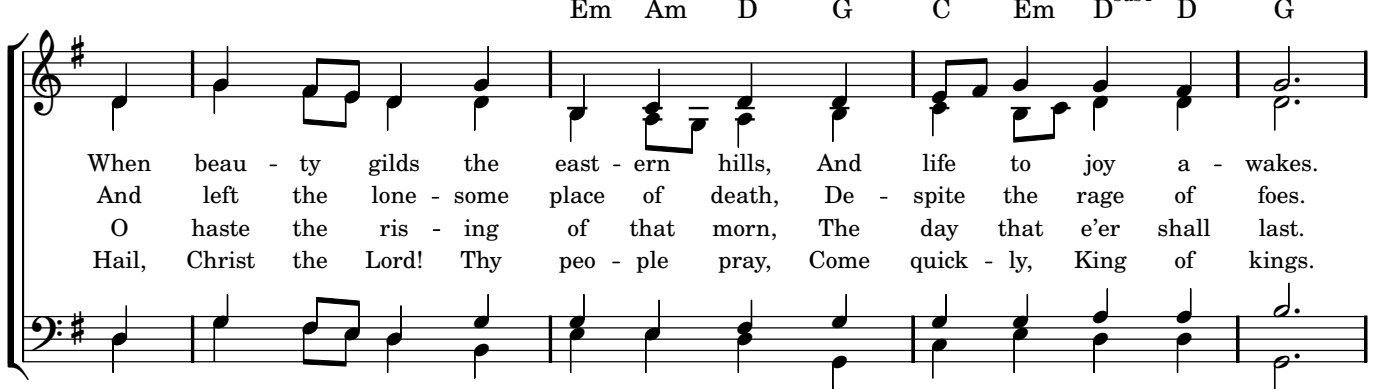

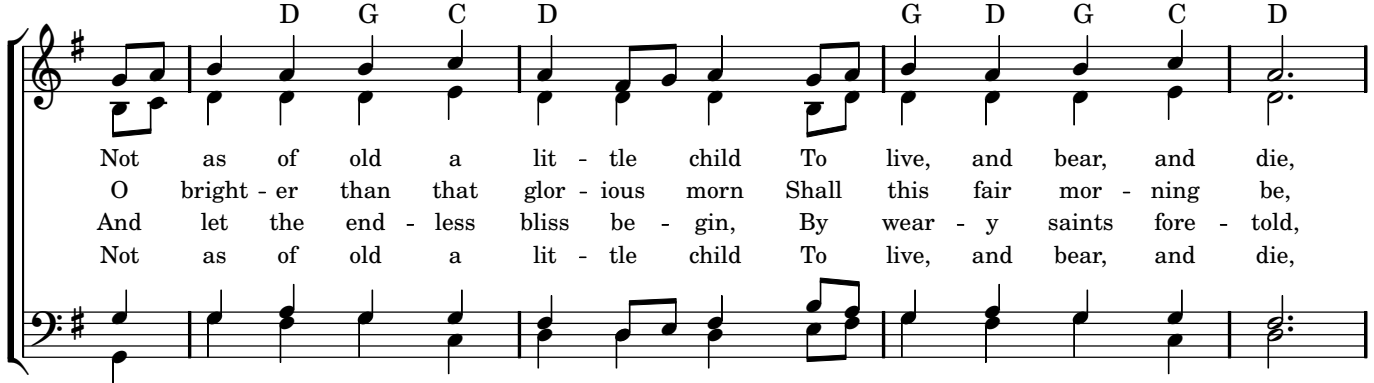

Gesangbuch der Herzogl (1784)

1. The King shall come when mor-ning dawns And light tri - um-phant breaks;
2. O bright - er than the ris - ing morn When He, vic - tor - ious, rose,
3. The King shall come when mor-ning dawns, And earth's dark night is past;
4. The King shall come when mor-ning dawns, And light and beau - ty brings:
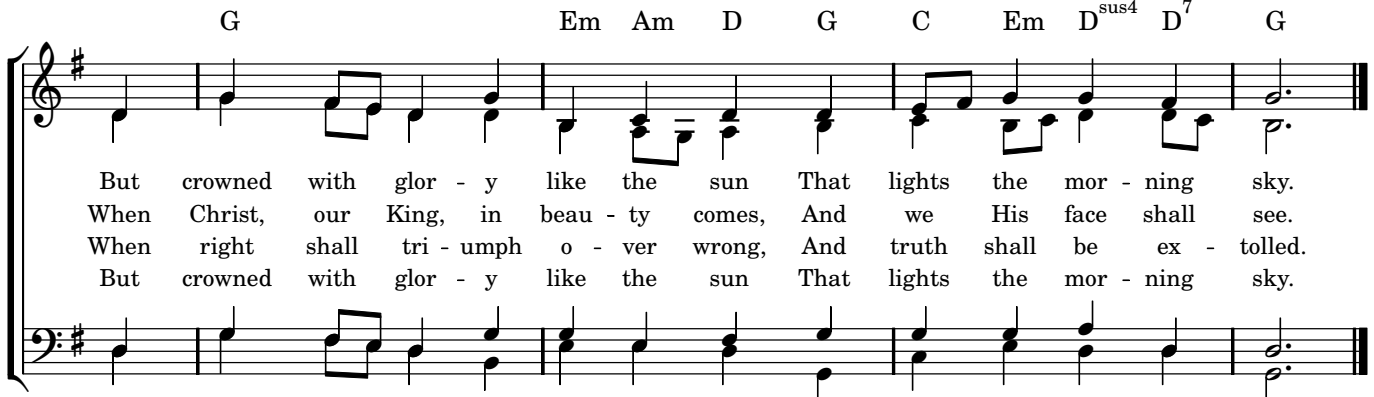

When beau - ty gilds the east - ern hills, And life to joy a - wakes.
And left the lone - some place of death, De - spite the rage of foes.
O haste the ris - ing of that morn, The day that e'er shall last.
Hail, Christ the Lord! Thy peo - ple pray, Come quick - ly, King of kings.

Not as of old a lit - tle child To live, and bear, and die,
O bright - er than that glor - ious morn Shall this fair mor - ning be,
And let the end - less bliss be - gin, By wear - y saints fore - told,
Not as of old a lit - tle child To live, and bear, and die,

But crowned with glor - y like the sun That lights the mor - ning sky.
When Christ, our King, in beau - ty comes, And we His face shall see.
When right shall tri - umph o - ver wrong, And truth shall be ex - tolled.
But crowned with glor - y like the sun That lights the mor - ning sky.
